

Special permits

In the case of certain occupations, special documentation is required for permission to work. The documentation required can vary from occupation to occupation.

1. Personal reliability, e. g.

- Police certificate of good conduct (for presentation to authorities)
- Extract from Central Trade Register (Gewerbezentralregister)

2. Material requirements:

- e. g.
- Documentation of commercial viability
 - Appropriate condition of commercial property

3. Professional requirements:

- e. g.
- Documentation of specialist skills (certificate, diploma, etc.)

Tip: The relevant chamber of commerce generally knows what specific documentation is required and where such documentation is available.

Note: The qualifications listed are minimum requirements. For example, a pharmacist or a doctor can offer over-the-counter medicines without taking an examination, and a trained chef can run a restaurant without needing to attend a course.
